

COPPER WIRES THEFT

costs every Territorian

LOOK OUT FOR

Exposed wires or a man hole that seems to have been moved and not replaced.

People removing pit lids (used to cover underground services) without proper equipment.

People accessing underground services during the night hours without a fully lit area.

Someone selling second-hand copper on buy-and-sell websites like Gumtree and Facebook – and without being a registered second-hand dealer. May ask for cash.

Report suspicious behaviour to Crime Stoppers 1800 333 000

