The proposed route is an alternative for heavy vehicles.

Heavy vehicles that would normally make deliveries in Katherine, or stop to use facilities, will still be able to do so.

The route includes a second high level river bridge improving flood immunity.

The Northern Territory Government will work with the local tourism industry and local businesses to make sure the route design encourages tourists to stop in Katherine.